Dear Jennifer:

Enclosed are two copies of the verbatim transcript of Mr. Bush's Vickers Lecture at the University of Kansas in April, together with a cassette recording transcribed from the broadcast tape. The cassette includes the question-and-answer session which followed the lecture, but we have not transcribed the questions and answers.

Traditionally, Vickers Lectures at the University of Kansas have been published after delivery, a practice Mr. Bush is aware of, I believe. I doubt very much that Mr. Bush would wish to publish an unedited verbatim transcript, reflecting oral speech patterns. We would, then, appreciate receiving an edited version of these remarks early in the fall, so that we may publish them. I am sure Mr. Bush himself would agree that the verbatim transcript would not be suitable for publication. Consequently, although it is an imposition in time and effort, we would appreciate an edited version of these remarks.

Thanks for taking care of this for us [Redacted]. It was good to work with you and your colleagues in arranging for Mr. Bush's visit, and I enjoyed meeting Mr. Bush. I am sorry we didn't have more opportunity to visit, but given your hectic schedule for that evening, I suppose we're lucky to have had you with us at all! If there is anything we can do for you at the University of Kansas or if you need any more information, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Cordially yours,

James J. Scally
